The Office of Naval Intelligence furnished the following information to CIA for IAC dissemination in accordance with paragraph 3c of NSCID #7.

50X1-HUM

1. Gdynia

four large Soviet merchant ships taking on cargoes of meat and coal. Soviet ships always arrive at Gdynia empty and are systematically bleeding Poland of its produce and resources. the older Polish people want war between the USSR and the west to start now, because they believe that such a conflict would result in an improvement of Poland's present unhappy position. Consumer goods are scarce and extremely costly. For example, shoes when obtainable, cost the equivalent of the average worker's monthly salary.
